

Community management, in the context of our agency, involves facilitating ongoing and purposeful two-way interactions with consumers via their mobile phones for the purpose of research. The role involves managing multiple mobile-based communities throughout Africa. The job will also include coordinating with our other Insights and Community Engagement Consultants in our offices across the globe.

If this matches your skillset, click on the link in the text in the caption to read the JOB DESCRIPTION and APPLY.